Ramli Sarip 	Read ‘everything is music’ and we begin to comprehend the timelessness of the voice of Ramli Sarip. It is undoubtedly the limitations in our own musical vocabulary and comprehension, our collective cultural forgetfulness that has rendered the living ‘healing’ voices from our traditions into the safe past, and so, in describing the Ramli Sarip experience through the years, can muster only the fond but wholly innocuous ‘Papa Rock’. In truth, the longevity in voice that marks the Ramli Sarip experience rests in its deep evocation of the ancient and eternal, eclipsing the elusive boundaries between the secular and the sacred (not unlike the way Johnny Cash would carry the Gospel even as he sang of burning in a worldly ‘ring of fire’) while existing in a perennial state of his acoustic showcase: Sentosa Di Kubah Hayat – of mystical transitions.

With Indonesian roots and a career spanning 16 years since first being crowned the 3rd Singapore Idol, he continues to evolve while staying true to the joy and curiosity that first drew him to music. His 5th studio album, The Art of Surrender (Oct 2025), marks a new chapter as he steps into the role of producer, showcasing his growth and dedication to his north star: honest and heartfelt expression.

From viral anthems to cinematic scores and stadium-level performances, Shabir brings an energy that is raw, bold and unmistakably his own. With a sound that blends his cultural roots, global rhythms and fearless storytelling, he steps into 2026 with "WE MOVIN'", a high-octane declaration of resilience, swagger and evolution. Shabir isn't here to reminisce. Shazza	Shazza, homegrown singer-songwriter is known for her lyrical storytelling and diverse musical style that gains global recognition through viral TikTok collaboration with Crash Adams and locally with her recent one-of-the kind unprecedented release of Happy, Wretched & Terrified album launch that showcased a unique community initiative reflecting

	 The 24-year-old artist has made strong representation in the music industry and put Singapore's music on the global map with her notable achievement as Spotify radar artiste and music artiste listed in 30 under 30's Forbes. She has performed at prominent events, including Singapore's National Day, Chingay, and on international stages. As a hijab-wearing artist, she recognizes the lack of representation in the industry and aims to break barriers and inspire change by striving to be a trailblazer, bringing more visibility through her music and presence where she is constantly exploring sounds to create a discography that resonates with a wide audience.
SORN 	SORN is an international pop artist who kickstarted her career at the age of 18, debuting as the lead vocalist of K-Pop group CLC in 2015. In 2021, SORN signed with hybrid management company WILD Group to embark on her solo career, since releasing nine digital singles and an EP which have both amassed a strong listener base, particularly across the Southeast Asia region. Her debut single "Sharp Objects" topped iTunes charts in numerous countries. She most recently collaborated with J.Tajor, the artist behind the viral hit "Like I Do" and with Dutch electronic duo Yellow Claw to release 'Cold Like Snow'. Sorn has also partnered up with Riot Games to release an anthem titled 'U Already Know' for the VALORANT Champions Tour. With a cumulative following of over 6 million on social media, Sorn has cultivated fans around the globe while showcasing her fun-loving and bubbly personality. She has been known for producing viral and popular video content across her social platforms. SORN is passionate about taking charge of the music making process from start to finish—from songwriting and developing concepts, to taking control of music

	video production. 2026 is poised to be a year of continued growth for SORN, who as an artist is set to bring music from Asia to new global heights.
Taufik Batisah 	From persisting through the gruelling trials of reality TV competition, to possessing a star branding called his own, Taufik Batisah has proven that dreams can turn into reality, and reality into a statement. A natural-born performer with strong vocal prowess, captivating showmanship and mesmerizing aura, Taufik won the hearts of the masses when he was crowned as the first ever Singapore Idol on 1 Dec 2004. His debut album BLESSINGS left a significant footprint in local music history as the best-selling local English album in the past decade with a record sale of more than 36,000 copies. With a wide music repertoire of jazz, sentimental ballads to street hip hop and pop, Taufik has well-established himself as a versatile performer and one of the region's biggest stars. Audiences in the region and beyond have also witnessed his progression from an aspiring star to an iconic artiste in a league of his own. Taufik's all-rounded capabilities as a singer-performer-composer-producer aid him in building a remarkable presence in the English and Malay music industry. His own distinctive brand of music has garnered overwhelming recognition from fans and music professionals alike. Beside his outstanding achievements in Singapore, Taufik also excels on the international stage. He was the only Singapore artiste invited to perform at the Live and Loud Music Festival in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, alongside international artistes KC & JoJo, Kool & Gang and James Morrison. He have also headlined the performances of the Asean-Korea Commemorative Summit in Jeju (Korea) and Seoul, and represented Singapore in the inaugural Asia Broadcasting Union (ABU) TV Song Festival, a non-competitive concert showcase featuring high profile music artistes across the Asia-Pacific countries. Taufik performed alongside Korea's TVXQ, Japan's Perfume, Australia's Havana Brown and other singers. The
